Volume 1

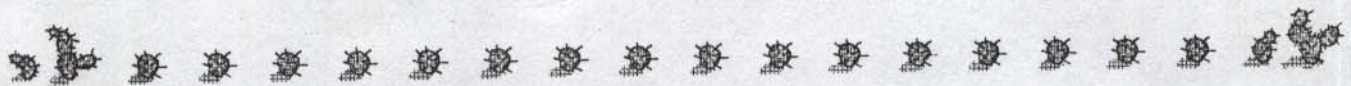

Issue 1

October 1994

Welcome to the First Issue!

From the editors: Hey all! Welcome to the first edition of the Wasted Times, the 'zine for Eagles' fans who are feeling a little blue about the recent developments in the Eagles' camp. We decided to start this 'zine for a couple of reasons. First of all, our lives were feeling a little empty because we felt like the only members of Generation X that hadn't published our very own underground magazine. Secondly, we, like most everyone else, had a great time this summer following the tour, met a lot of people through various on-line services, and want to keep the momentum going. The contents are meant to cheer you up a little and to inform you a little. Even though we sort of slam various members of the band and their families, we do this with no ill will. Those of you who know us know that we would never willingly slam a member of this band. This is all meant in fun. Enjoy! L&M

Daily Affirmations
by
Timothy B. Schmit

Even if one of your friends constantly mispronounces your name, it doesn't mean he doesn't like you.

Being a replacement bass player doesn't mean nobody wanted you as their first choice.

If you just believe, your friends will work out their difficulties and you CAN be on the radio again.
