

Eagles Assist Striking Boys of Summer

"Well we couldn't just let America have nothing to do on a Sunday afternoon," explained Eagles co-founder Glenn Frey. "I mean, it felt like it was our duty." Frey is referring to the resumption of the Eagles' softball league which has been on hiatus since the mid 70s.

This summer, the Eagles have taken to the field to provide entertainment to those who thrive on baseball. "It took a little while to get in shape again," groaned Don Henley rubbing his back and sucking on an Evian bottle, "but it was worth it." So far, the Eagle record is 2-0, having beaten the Saved by the Bell team and trouncing Jason Priestly's 90210 team.

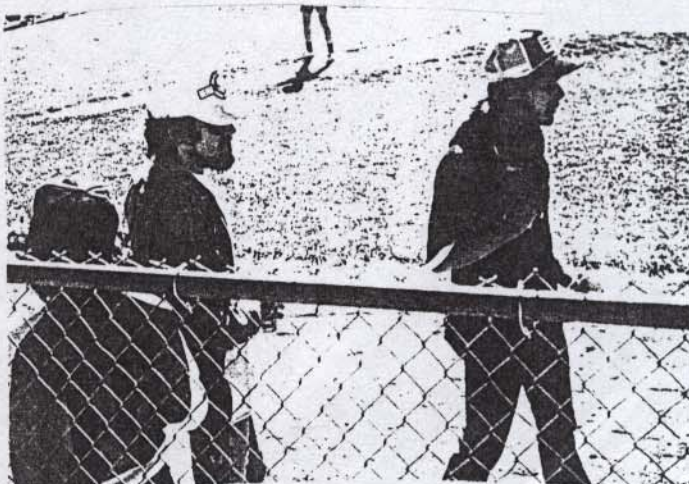

Pitcher Don Henley gets ready to throw his renowned Eco-Ball. It's smeared with birch sap.

Team manager, Irving 'The Gipper' Azoff, gives vital direction to the troops.

Just pretend it's the AP, Don. Swing away.

'F%#k 'em! I'm just taking my base!' Glenn Frey doesn't believe in rules.
