

Eagles take it easy out in the country

● THE Eagles have been sending golf balls soaring to the skies of Co Kildare for the past few days.

Glenn Frey says some of the band have been staying at the exclusive K club.

"I've been playing at the K club every morning," he says.

● "At ten to eight I'm the first guy off every morning. I've got my K club windbreaker. We've also been doing some fishing".

The famous American super group from the '70s have sold two shows in Dublin's RDS tonight and tomorrow for their first ever performance here and the start of their European tour.

EUGENE MASTERSON

They're set to play hits such as Hotel California, Desperado and Take It Easy.

"We're very happy to be here," says Glenn. "We're looking forward to all of our shows".

● Guitarist Joe Walsh also acknowledged the current Irish drug problem.

"We come from a generation that experimented with substances.

"But we are grown up now".
