Dear Lisa and Melissa,

Thank you so very much for supporting this year's MusiCares Person of the Year tribute to Don Henley on Friday, February 9, 2007. Don is an artist with the rare ability to create decades of award-winning, chart-topping songs while maintaining a place in his music for relevant, socially-conscious messages. We are especially pleased that he allowed us to pay tribute to him.

The event was a spectacular evening of entertainment and we cannot thank you enough for giving so generously to the success of the evening. As you know the proceeds from the tribute each year help sustain MusiCares' vital Human Service Programs and this year's record-breaking event will go a long way in helping a greater number of music people who are suffering from devastating personal and medical hardships.

MusiCares continues to make a real difference between music people and their families having a home or being homeless; receiving medical care or having an illness go untreated; having food or going hungry; being trapped in the deadly cycle of addiction or finding freedom to live a healthy life. In addition, this past year, MusiCares provided almost $6 million in financial aid and instrument replacement to more than 3,500 music people affected by the Gulf Coast disasters.

We hope you will join us again next year as MusiCares celebrates another incredible artist for his or her generosity of spirit and humanitarian efforts at the 2008 Person of the Year tribute. Thank you again for all of your efforts on our behalf; and if you hear of someone in our industry who needs assistance, please tell them to call MusiCares.

With deep appreciation,

Neil Portnow
